

“Orthopaedics for the Primary Care Physician: Spine” CME program to be held on Saturday, October 19, 2013 in Virginia Beach

On Saturday, October 19th, Atlantic Orthopaedic Specialists and Eastern Virginia Medical School will co-host a Continuing Medical Education program entitled “Orthopaedics for the Primary Care Physician: Spine”. The conference will be held at The Westin-Virginia Beach Town Center from 8:00 a.m. until 12:50 p.m. and offers participants 4 AMA PRA Category 1 credits in CME. Physicians and other healthcare providers from throughout the Hampton Roads area are invited to hear presentations on Lumbar Spinal Stenosis, Cervical Myelopathy, Spinal Instability, Nerve Entrapment and Compression Syndromes, Concussions and Sports Related Injuries, Non-Operative Care of Lumbar Pain, Back Therapy, select case presentations and a panel discussion. Faculty for the program include: Drs. Donald A. O’Neill, J. Abbott Byrd III, Timothy E. Budorick, David M. Clifford, Bradley C. Carofino, Bradley T. Butkovich and Eric A. Mein, all board certified orthopaedic specialists with AOS. Jodi Harrity and Ryan Davis, DPT’s from AOS Physical Therapy will present on Back Therapy. Registration includes seminar materials, continental breakfast, break and certificate of completion for both CME credit and attendance.

For more information, contact the EVMS CME office at (757) 446-6140 or e-mail at cme@evms.edu .